

Satelite Radio allows me to have access to continuous listen pleasure while driving for business through the US. They need and deserve the right to broadcast weather and traffic updates to their subscribers. If the FCC takes this away this is a great in justice. Satelite Radio has paid the FCC for their license's. They should be able to provide this service. If the FCC takes away this right they are violating the constitutional rights of every American.